The First Treasurer Report was given by President Joe Reynolds, he stated that all annuals dues had been collected and mailed and received by the Association. He stated that several members had made donations along with their dues payment and since all Chapter expenses were covered that there was also a $100.00 Donation made from the Chapter to the Descendants of Confederate Veterans Association. There is a Balance of $37.96 currently in our account.

Under Old Business we had nothing to bring up.

Under New Business we discussed the following:

1. We have two new members who are currently processing in and will be inducted at next month's meeting
 - a. Camden Loch McCulloch
 - b. Dalton Connor Hand
2. We discussed the upcoming Reunion at Jefferson, Texas, and all members and guests were encouraged to attend. The Chapter was reminded that unlike some other organizations, we do not have Chapter delegates, instead, it is One Man, One Vote, which makes it even more important that everyone shows up. We will be discussing our Chapter Constitution and Bylaws at the Reunion, as well as other possible amendments to the Association Constitution.
3. All members were reminded to submit any recommendations or request for to me by February 1st in order for me to submit request for change to the DCV Membership at least 30 day in advance of the Reunion. Compatriot Routh requested that we once again address the possibility of allowing Supplemental Applications for members.

Tonight's program was Death of The Confederacy, Sherman's March to the Sea.

The Benediction was given by Compatriot Michael Mars.

The Meeting was adjourned at 8:03

Alvin Rex McGee, Secretary/Treasurer
