There was no Treasurer Report

Under Old Business we did talk about Chapter Dues, we have already received all but 3 members annual dues.

Under New Business we discussed the fact that now that we are receiving money into the Chapter, we need to set up a bank account to secure the funds. Compatriot Routh suggested that we try to set up an account that would also earn us a little money on the side. President Reynolds volunteered to set up a Banking Account if that was the Chapter's wish. David Routh made a motion to have President Reynolds Set up the Checking Account with the following stipulations:

- The account should be set up in Mount Pleasant, Texas, the home of our Secretary/Treasurer and the location of our Post Office Box
- As per our Constitution, the account should have the Chapter President's and Chapter Secretary/ Treasurer's signatures on the account.

The motion was seconded by Steve Melton and received a unanimous vote.

Tonight's program was Confederate Memorial Statue in Marshall Texas.

The Benediction was given by Compatriot Michael Mars

The Meeting was adjourned at 7:51 PM.
